Celebrating Pearl's 104th Birthday

It is not every day that you turn 104 years old! Staff and residents were delighted to celebrate this monumental day with Pearl. Knowing her love of flora, staff decorated her door to the brim with flowers. She also had balloons, a bright bouquet, cards, gifts, and a delicious sheet cake for everyone to share waiting at lunch time. We are so blessed to have Pearl in our Cottage family!

as much independence as possible. This is not always an easy task. It takes a special kind of person to have the patience, compassion, humor, and love that is needed to fulfill this duty day in and day out. There are not enough words to express the impact that our staff makes in the lives of our residents and their families.

Message from the President of Columbia Cottage

Practice Lots of Loving

Love is so important to God that it is mentioned hundreds of times in every translation of the Bible. I remember during my early days at Sunday school that our instructors would pull the classroom in a circle and tell stories of how Christ referred to love as the greatest commandment of all, and how he spent his ministry demonstrating love to his followers.

Learning to love God's way provides the most tangible picture of him available to the world. Nothing will draw you closer to him or to others than walking in unconditional love. As my wife and I are raising our two beautiful and inquisitive young girls, we try to demonstrate that true love encompasses enthusiasm and passion, and it bases itself more on trust, commitment, and action.

I encourage all of us to love someone today through your actions: give a gift, a loving touch, a personal note, or an act of kindness. For it was Saint Thomas Aquinas who shared that to love is to will the good of another.

-Jim

Staff Appreciation

On Wednesday, June 19 the Cottage held our Annual Staff Appreciation Party. Everyone was treated to Chick-fil-a, hoagies, and salad as well as a delectable assortment of cakes. This year's staff gifts were blue and green inside out umbrellas and embroidered Columbia Cottage jackets. Many of our partners were excited to provide raffle baskets for the staff to win, including Fox Rehab, Caring Hospice, Southeastern, The Medicine Shoppe, and Kindred Hospice.
