Cottage ST★R
Daisy Curto

My Name is Daisy Curto and I am happy to be joining the team at Colombia Cottage. I have worked in different nursing backgrounds including hospitals, rehabs, long and short- term care, neuro rehab and assisted living. I love being a nurse and being there for my residents! I was born in Puerto Rico and raised both in Puerto Rico and Philadelphia. I am bilingual. After I attended nursing school and had my children we moved away from the city and into the country. I am a busy mom of three little boys (almost 8-year-old twins and a 6-year-old) they keep my husband and I very busy. I am excited to start my career at the Cottage and to get to know each of the residents there.

Kwame Oforu-Donkoh

My name is Kwame. This is my ninth year as a nurse. I love helping people in need, which brought me to this profession. I am ready to help and assist residents at Columbia Cottage for a safe and healthy living. It’s good to be part of this community.

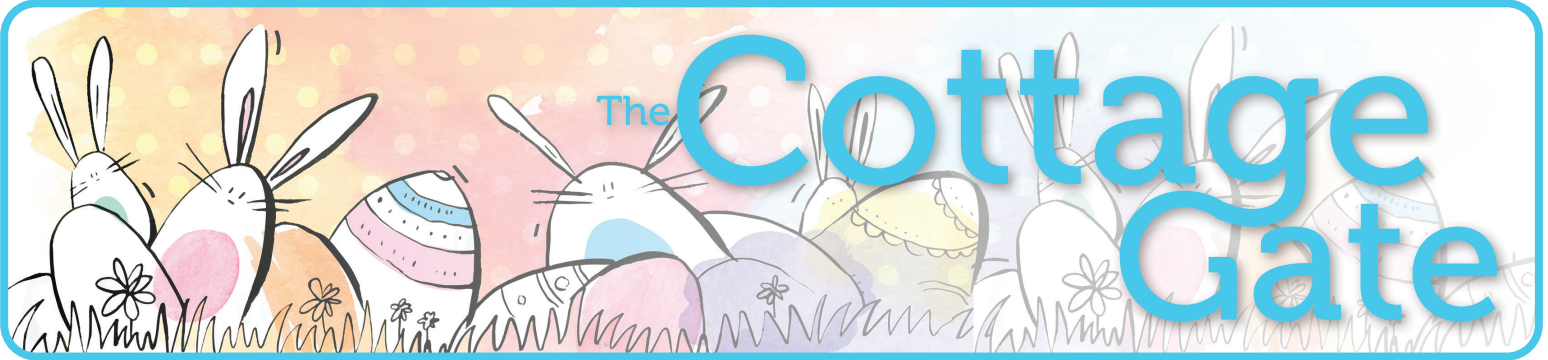

Bowling at “Cottage Lanes”

Residents participated in playing one of the oldest and popular games in the world: bowling traces its ancestry to Egypt in 3200 BC. There are many variations of the game...this was ours!

Message from the President of Columbia Cottage

Smell a Flower

Living in PA, we are truly blessed to be able to experience many splendors that the Spring season provides. For many, stopping to smell a flower can have transformational benefits. However, in order to smell a flower, you have to notice that it is there, pause to inhale its fragrance, and marvel at its beauty and intricacy of design. Since God cared enough to create thousands of types of flowers with individual shapes, colors, and fragrances that live for such a short time, I encourage you to consider how much more He must have a special design and purpose for you. As you move towards finding His purpose for you when you stop to appreciate His creation, remind yourself how beautiful you are in His eyes, and are attentive to His marvelous work.

Valentine’s Day Love

Neither Covid nor snowstorms stopped us from sharing the “love” this Valentine’s Day. Residents enjoyed hearts galore, sweet treats, and homemade cards from Germantown Academy and Girls Scout Troop770.

Beach Party

No matter how much snow fell it did not keep us from having some “fun in the sun”!

Happy Easter
