Message from the President of Columbia Cottage

Finding Joy

We can find joy in the most unexpected places but living joyously is quite challenging. This is especially true during difficult times. When something happens that breaks the pattern of comfort and happiness in our lives, we are being put to the test. Such trials can strengthen our faith for He said that I am training you to consider it pure Joy whenever you face trials of many kinds. I encourage us all to stay in communication with Him through our spoken words, thoughts, and songs (although my daughters strongly discourage me with the latter). Spend time absorbing His Word and let it speak into your heart, where it changes the way, we think and live. In His presence, we can find fullness of Joy, perfect Peace, and unfailing Love.

-Jim

Love Is

Poet: Kate Summers ©2016

What does love mean on this Valentine's Day
Love is doing more for another than for self
Love is encouraging and supportive
Love is patient
Love is kindness for one another
Love is helping and laughter too
Love is appreciating all you do
Love is sharing interests
Love is a comfort
Love is always there
Love is meant to be shared
Love is beauty in the eyes of the beholder
Love is showing that you care.
Love is you and all you do
Happy Valentine's Day to YOU!

About Limericks

It is believed that limericks date back to the 14th century and originated in the Irish town of Limerick. The limerick is a humorous five-line poem with two rhymes: one shared by the first, second, and fifth lines and the other shared by the shorter third and fourth lines.

There was a young fellow from Crete
Who was exceedingly neat
When he got out of bed
He stood on his head
To make sure of not soiling his feet
